Voting Rights

The Co-operative is a Multi-Stakeholder Co-operative. Like regular co-operatives, each member has one vote, regardless of the number of shares they own. Unlike regular co-operatives, each stakeholder group is allocated a percentage of total votes. The Ecological Land Co-operative has 3 stakeholder groups: Investors, Stewards, and Workers. When Investor Members have the maximum voting entitlement, voting rights are approximately apportioned as follows:

- * Steward Members - 50% Voting Rights
- * Investor Members - 25% Voting Rights
- * Worker Members - 25% Voting Rights

More information on voting can be found in rule 2.7 on the Co-operative's rules.
